Mostly A's: Celebrity

Get ready for glitz and glam—you're destined to be a star! You love being the center of attention and are most comfortable when the spotlight is aimed squarely at you. Because you can captivate a crowd, you'd make an awesome actress, comedian, or rock star—anything that shows off your natural charisma.

Mostly B's: Power

You're dependable, determined, and driven—you could rule the world if you set your mind to it! Once you have your heart set on something, you don't give up until you've fulfilled your dream. Because you're so ambitious, you're totally on track to be a big-shot exec—with a lavish paycheck to match (Bloomingdale's, here you come!).

Mostly C's: Creativity

One thing's for sure—no one would call you ordinary! You've got loads of imagination, and your friends never get bored hanging out with you since you're always coming up with wild ideas. There's no doubt you'll make use of your fierce talent in the future, whether you're painting a masterpiece, writing a novel, or covering your fave bands for a magazine.

Mostly D's: Charity

When your friends need someone to talk to, we bet they turn to you. Not only are you way social, but you're also totally caring and compassionate—so people naturally flock to you. Your huge heart and social savvy would make you way successful as an inspiring teacher, a helpful therapist, or an outgoing party planner (yep, that's actually a job!).

what does your palm reveal?

The future's in the palm of your hands. Nope, it's not just a cheesy saying from your guidance counselor—with this palmistry chart, you really can get a glimpse of what's to come by looking at your hands.

Heart Line: If this line ends between your first and middle fingers, you'll fall passionately in love. But if it goes straight across your hand, you'll meet a guy you connect with on a more intellectual level. A fork in your heart line means you'll score the perfect relationship—a fiery romance and an emotional bond.

Head Line: If this line is long, you're strong-minded and have a ton of potential. If it's super-straight, be careful—you may miss out on love by being too critical. But if it curves gently, you'll be totally flexible and adapt to any situation. If it forks under your ring finger, you'll excel in the arts; a fork under your pinkie means you'll be successful in business.

Life Line: The deeper this line, the healthier you'll be. If there is another line running alongside your life line, consider yourself lucky—you have extra protection against illness! And if the life line branches off toward your wrist, pack your bags—you're likely to travel all over the world.

Fate Line: If this line is weak, you'll change jobs until you find something you really enjoy. If it ends at your head line, you may totally change direction halfway through life. If it crosses your heart line, you'll have loads of energy well into your old age.

Sun Line: The stronger this line is, the more fulfilled you'll be in life. Check the highest point on this line for a group of lines that looks like a star. If you have one, prepare to be pampered—you may come across a lot of money later in life.
